A renovated home with views set to take your breath away! The ground level offers two generously sized bedrooms serviced by a fully tiled bathroom, modern kitchen and open plan living and dining zone opening out onto a private balcony with vibrant park and city views unlike any others in the Inner West! The lower level consists of a further two bedrooms, second bathroom, laundry, low maintenance outdoor space, storage room and expansive deck. Additionally, heating and cooling, off street parking for two cars under carport and access to the park only moments away ensure comfort and convenience is key. This one wont last long!
